Convicted!

A lady asked the famed revivalist D. L. Moody to talk to her husband claiming that when she spoke to him on religion he paid no attention. Moody told her she had better pray that God would convince and convict him. The couple came about a dozen times to his meetings and Moody noticed that often while he was speaking she would close her eyes and her lips would move. He knew she was praying for God to convict her husband.

Then one night Moody noticed the man was weeping. Every hymn emphasized the atoning work of Jesus Christ at Calvary. Moody said, "When I gave out the text, 'The Precious Blood,' I saw him cover his face and bow his head, and he fairly wept aloud." He followed Moody into the inquiry room after the message and said: "Mr. Moody, this has been the most extraordinary day in my life. When I got up this morning the words 'precious blood' came into my mind. When I went to my place of business the words 'precious blood' were ringing in my mind, and all during the day it was 'precious blood, precious blood.' They followed me here tonight and when you gave out your text, 'The Precious Blood,' I could hardly stay in my seat! I can't understand it." Moody replied that he understood it; and, after explaining how the Holy Spirit was convicting him of his sin, He led him to accept Christ as his Savior.

Has the Holy Spirit been convicting you to repent of your sins and accept Jesus Christ as your Savior? Don't push off His conviction! Just before God sent the terrible judgment of the world-wide flood He said, "My spirit shall not always strive with man" (Gen. 6:3). Be grateful He cares enough for you to show you your need and respond to Him now!
