Like A Stream Flowing Free

In the mid 80's, a young African couple from Kenya, Steve and Jennifer Kabachia, stayed with a church family and ministered in our church during their mid-year Bible School vacation. Steve had been winning souls to Christ in Garrisa of North Kenya, but felt led of the Lord to come to America for theological training. While ministering to our congregation, Steve taught us a stirring Kenyan chorus which we still sing: "There's something in my heart like a stream flowing free. It makes me feel so happy, as happy as can be. When I think of Jesus and all He's done for me, there's something in my heart like a stream flowing free." This chorus expresses the peace, joy, and freedom that the Lord gives by His Spirit to those who repent of their sins and accept Jesus Christ as their Savior. Scripture promises: "*For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river ... like a flowing stream" (Isaiah 66:12). "There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad..." (Psalm 46:4). Jesus promised: "*He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (innermost being) shall flow rivers of living water" (John 7:38). For more on this, see: www.naog.ws/thirsty.htm

When the Kabachias returned to Kenya, they planted a church in Nairobi. Agape Fellowship Centre, of which Steve is the senior pastor, has grown to be a large church which has "given birth" to over 100 churches all over Kenya and East Africa in countries like Uganda, Tanzania, and Rwanda. They run the Pavilion Children Home in Karatina. Steve serves in many leadership capacities including director of Jesus Harvesters Ministry, principal of Harvesters Bible College, regional director for DAWN Ministries (Discipling A Whole Nation), etc.

I invite you to hear Steve and Jennifer Kabachia this Sunday, September 6 at 10:45 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.
