She Was Searching...

On the outskirts of Uruguay's capital, Montevideo, Maria overdosed on painkillers. Moments later, medical personnel rushed her to a hospital where she was resuscitated.

Angry that her suicide attempt failed, Maria fled from the hospital with a new plan to kill herself. As she ran, she encountered an Assemblies of God street evangelism outreach where she heard the message of salvation and accepted Jesus as her Savior. When frantic family members and the police found her in the outreach tent, they told her it was time to leave. "No, I am not leaving this place," she responded. "I have found what I was searching for."

Are you, like Maria, searching? God has placed within us a deep longing for Himself as we read in Rev. 4:11, "...for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." Only God can satisfy our longing souls! "For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness" (Psalm 107:9). See more on spiritual thirst at www.naog.ws/thirsty.htm

Like Maria, many are searching for something to satisfy-riches, material possessions, sexual encounters, alcohol, drugs, etc., but these things will never fulfill and satisfy our spiritually hungry souls! Those who turn from their sins to Jesus Christ find that He satisfies! Jesus is the only way (see www.naog.ws/theway.htm) to God! In our services we often sing, "Hallelujah! I have found Him, Whom my soul so long has craved! Jesus satisfies my longings; thro' His blood I now am saved."

I invite you to attend any of our services and let us pray with you and help you to accept Jesus as your Savior. Then you, like Maria, will be able to say, "I have found what I was searching for!"
