Someday?

"I know you're right. I need to be saved, and someday I intend to be." This was Sonny's reply to the Christian witness he received. "I want to have a good time and sow my wild oats," he said. Sonny needed Christ. He had gone deeply into sin and was on his way to hell. But he wasn't too sinful to be saved. No one is. The apostle Paul declared, "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief" (I Timothy 1:15). Prior to his conversion to Christ, Paul had horrendously persecuted the followers of Christ, yet – Jesus forgave him of his sins! No, Sonny's sins weren't too great. Only one thing hindered him – his own reluctance.

One night Sonny was in a poolroom and got into an argument with a younger boy. He challenged him to step outside and settle it. Sonny, over six feet tall, was well able to take care of himself. Once outside he hit his opponent, knocking him to the ground. But as Sonny stood over him, the other boy pulled a pistol and pumped three bullets into his body. Sonny never saw the light of another day! Little did Sonny think when he got to that poolroom that he was having his last "good time."

The Bible says, "Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth" (Proverbs 27:1). "Someday I intend to be saved," Sonny had said. But "someday" never came! How foolish to gamble on "some-day" when the eternal stakes are so high! Anyone who postpones the matter of his personal salvation is taking an awful chance. The Bible says, "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (II Cor. 6:2). Jesus is the only Way to heaven (see www.naog.ws/theway.htm). Will you ask Him to save you – NOW?
