Then What?

Charles G. Finney, a young lawyer, was sitting in a village law office in the state of New York. Finney had just come into the old squire's office. It was very early in the day, and he was all alone when the Lord began to deal with him.

"Finney, what are you going to do when you finish your course?" "Put out a shingle and practice law."

"Then what?" "Get Rich."

"Then what?" "Retire."

"Then what?" "Die."

"Then what?" "And the words came tremblingly, The Judgement!"

He ran for the woods a half mile away. All day he prayed, and vowed that he would never leave until he had made his peace with God. He saw himself at the judgment bar of God. For four years he had studied law, and now the vanity of a selfish life, lived for the enjoyment of the things of the world, was made clear to him.

Finney came out of the woods that evening, after a long struggle, with the high purpose of living henceforth to the glory of God and of enjoying Him forever. From that moment blessings untold filled his life, and God used him in a mighty way not as a lawyer, but as a preacher, to bring thousands to conversion over a useful period of fifty years.

What are you planning to do with your life? Have you surrendered your heart to Jesus?
